CMD SPEAKS...

If all began almost three decades ago. Having returned from Saudi Arabia where my 10 years of career culminated in Administration and Personnel Manager in a leading Group of Companies, I started this business in a miniature office with just two employees. Ever since, through our steadfast commitment to our core values - Reliability, Transparency and Excellence - it has been a march of growth. From a mere so called 'agency' to a professional HR Company, from one among others to one above others, the transformation has been phenomenal.

Looking back, it is highly gratifying. Thousands of happy job seekers! Hundreds of satisfied employers! The journey of two decades is fulfilling indeed. And that gives us the impetus to march ahead with confidence that we have been treading the right path.

So Dear Employer, if your search is for a professional and reliable recruitment partner in Sri Lanka, look no further. Here we are – geared to fulfill all your HR needs with utmost efficiency and dedication. We do so because our success lies on your success.

Our company profile that follows and words of endorsements from our existing employer clients, I am sure, will certainly prompt you to give us an opportunity to be of service to you.

Our promise is simple.

Try us once. We will ensure that you will cherish your decision for many years to come.
